- Minor Disruption: In the case of a minor disruption, the library patron will receive two warnings. If the behavior continues, the patron may be asked to leave the library for a stated period of suspension.
- Extreme Misconduct: In the case of any misconduct that, in the judgment of a staff member, is extreme, the offender may be given only one warning, may be ordered to leave the library immediately for a stated period of suspension, or local law enforcement may be called.
- Permanent Ban from the Library: Patrons who engage in repeated disruptive behaviors that interfere with others' use of the library or the general operation of the library or engage in behaviors that violate the law may be permanently banned from the San Benito County Free Library premises by the County Librarian. A written notice of permanent ban may be given to the patron. A written appeal of the County Librarian's decision may be made within 30 days.

In cases where a policy violation occurs involving a child under the age of 17, the staff will give the child one warning. If the behavior continues, the library director will inform the parents that their child was asked to leave the library for a stated period of suspension and explain the circumstances. Parents of minor children may be held responsible for any damages caused to library materials or computers by their child.

If the child continues to cause disruptive behavior in the library, the child and parents or guardian must meet with the County Librarian to review policy rules before the child can return to use the library.

Note that young children under the age of 12 must be supervised by an adult while at the library.

Exceptions to the above may be authorized by the County Librarian and/or other designee.

Neither the County Librarian nor any other member of the library staff is a professional medical or legal expert. All actions taken shall be subject to the best opinion of the County Librarian and library staff.

The San Benito County Free Library staff will be consistent with enforcing this Behavior Policy to ensure the safety of patrons and staff and create an environment that is enjoyable to our patrons. This policy also ensures that the quality of library materials is maintained.
